Areas of Expertise

Since 1993, Dr. David Whiteman has performed a range of breast, body and facial cosmetic surgery for his Atlanta patients: breast augmentation, reduction, & lift; liposuction of the face and body; mini and full tummy tuck surgery; brow lift surgery; rhinoplasty (nose surgery); and wrinkle treatment such as Botox® and Restylane®. Dr. Whiteman's cosmetic results can be seen on his website.

Highly publicized for performing Real Housewives of Atlanta star Nene Leakes' facial and breast surgery procedures last year, Dr. David Whiteman uses his nearly two decades of surgical experience to cater to the unique cosmetic needs of each individual patient and deliver natural-looking, aesthetically pleasing cosmetic enhancement. With a particular emphasis in cosmetic and reconstructive breast procedures, Dr. Whiteman prides himself on his diverse patient base and superior reputation for patient care. Dr. Whiteman speaks candidly about his passion for cosmetic surgery, "I love helping patients achieve their cosmetic goals. Often there are very isolated issues contributing to a patient's dissatisfaction with their appearance, and once those individual things are vocalized during a consultation, it's usually a relatively simple matter of identifying a cosmetic solution."

Whether you're looking to correct breast asymmetry, a breast size issue you've dealt with your entire life, or simply wish to redefine your silhouette with liposuction, Dr. Whiteman works one-on-one with his patients to ensure that your plastic surgery results forever reflect your cosmetic ideals.
